The Official Newsletter of Mossel Bay Golf Club

Dear Members

In this edition of our Monthly communication, I thought it would be essential to give you all feedback on the progress of the cart path project. To date, we have accumulated approximately R56 000.00 towards the project. However, we are currently still calculating exactly how much repairs, how much extension of the current paths, and the cost of new pathways where needed. Our April issue will have a more formal and precise clarification about the cart paths and costs.

A further project that requires communication is the idea of Louis Oosthuizen to extend the dam behind the 7th green. We are still gathering information to do a proper feasibility study on all the pros and cons associated with the project. We will again communicate the process with you and any decisions made.

For those members that might be interested, Mossel Bay Golf Club had 4227 rounds during February. This is 679 rounds more than February 2021.

Golf Course

Our greens have recovered very well after the hollow tinning, and by the time you read this, the cutting height will be back to 3.2mm. Technically, Gavin can cut them a fraction lower, but it could prove problematic with our often windy conditions. The speed of the greens should improve to about 9.5 or even 10 on the stimp meter soon. As most of you would have noticed, we have loosened the sand in the greenside bunkers. We are still in the process of completing the front nine. This process has also allowed us to identify the problematic bunkers with very little to no sand, and we will attend to that problem soon.

Generally, our Course is in great shape, and I am convinced that our members and visitors are enjoying their experience.

Showers

This is just a further reminder to our members that the shower facilities are operational again. However, we ask that golfers bring their own towels.
